KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Rebecca Brock

Rebecca Brock is a gifted women's teacher with a passion for the local church and women's ministry. She grew up in a ministry family, was saved at a young age, and committed her life to be used by Christ in whatever way He chose. She graduated from MBU with a bachelor's degree in Communication Arts and has since earned a master's degree in English Education. She married Bryan in 1999, and the Lord led them to Southern California, where they were involved in church-planting for ten years. Currently Bryan is a part of the Bible faculty at MBU and Rebecca serves as the Executive Assistant in the President's office.

The Brocks live in Oconomowoc, WI with their four children and are actively involved in their local church.

SPEAKING TOPICS:

~David: Responding to God in the Wilderness

~Mary: Submitting to the Will of a Good God

Shelly Hamilton is a vital part of the ministry of her husband—Ron Hamilton, alias Patch the Pirate. She is administrative producer of the Majesty Music products including the Patch the Pirate Adventures, two hymnals—Majesty and Rejoice Hymns, the Hymnproviser hymnplaying series, and annual choral and keyboard works. At Calvary Baptist Church, Shelly served alongside Ron as pianist, special music coordinator, and administrative music librarian for 21 years. She now has an expansive traveling ministry as a women's speaker. Her role as loving mother and grandmother and involvement in the Patch the Pirate Ministry have contributed to her heart for families. Shelly has dedicated her life to providing godly Christian music for churches and homes today.

SPEAKING TOPICS:

~The Just Shall Live By Faith

~God Is Always, Only Good

~What Are You Becoming?
